For the days will come upon you, when your enemies will set up a barricade around you and surround you and hem you in on every side and tear you down to the ground, you and your children within you. And they will not leave one stone upon another in you,..." Luke 19:43-44 (ESV)

...because you did not know the time of your visitation." Luke 19:44 (ESV)

How can we apply this to our life?

- Jesus is God. He knows everything that is happening in my life and my heart. In spite of knowing me completely, he still loves me fully. He loves me so much he died for me.
- Remember that Jesus didn't come to save us from our felt needs. He came to save us from our real need, which is the problem of sin and our need to be in a right relationship with God.
- I don't want to miss the day of Jesus' visitation in my life. There is no guarantee there will be a second chance.
